New York Botanical Gardens

Don’t miss this very special trip to the New York Botanical Gardens to explore Kusama: Cosmic Nature, a multi-sensory presentation designed to capture and illuminate Yayoi Kusama’s profound engagement with nature. The NYBG is the exclusive venue for this singular garden-wide experience.

Across the NYBG's 250-acre campus Kusama’s lifelong fascination with the natural world is revealed in multiple installations featuring her signature organic forms, polka-dotted sculptures of colossal flora, mesmerizing nature-based paintings, biomorphic collages, works on paper, and botanical sketches.

Your Garden & Gallery pass will enable you to explore the NYBG at your leisure and gives you access to all outdoor installations across the grounds including Kusama’s large-scale sculptures. You will also have inside access to the Enid A. Haupt Conservatory and its spectacular horticultural tribute to Kusama based on one of her vibrant paintings as well as inside access to the LuEsther T. Mertz Library Building and Ross Gallery. The exhibition also debuts new works created by the legendary artist, including a monumental site-specific pumpkin sculpture and her first-ever participatory greenhouse installation that will transform over the course of the exhibition from spring into fall.

Make use of the NYBG’s Tram Tour to help you navigate the many outdoor gardens and be sure to save time to explore their extensive gift shop.

Lunch on your own at either of the NYBG’s two dining venues, The Pine Tree Cafe with seating available at the Clay Family Picnic Pavilions or under the tent at the visitor center plaza, or at the farm-to-table Hudson Garden Grill restaurant with outdoor and limited indoor dining. Reservations are recommended on opentable.com. Please note that indoor dining is in accordance with NYS guidelines, and a temperature check will be required for anyone dining indoors and one person from each party must provide contact information for tracing purposes. Diners with a temperature higher than 100 degrees will be asked to leave the Garden. Face coverings must be always worn in the Hudson Grill except when seated and dining.
